

Terms and Conditions

What is the Inglis Race Series?

It is a Race Series for horses (sold or passed in), exclusively through eligible Inglis Sales. This extends to Inglis yearlings, Ready2Race and Inglis Digital graduates as well as Inglis weanlings paid in full for the respective Inglis Race Series.

What is the Theault Trainers Challenge?

An exciting initiative proudly supported by Theault for the most successful trainer in each year of the Inglis Race Series.

Trainers will receive points based on the results of their horses in each of the eligible races that make up the current Inglis Race Series.

The points system will be as follows for the Inglis Banner, Inglis Bracelet, Inglis Nursery, Inglis Millennium, Inglis Sprint and Inglis Challenge.

Points are awarded for official results for first, second and third placegetters as outlined below:

- 1st = 20 points
- 2nd = 10 points
- 3rd = 5 points

What does the most successful trainer receive?

Thanks to Theault, the most successful Australian based trainer in the Inglis Race Series will be given the opportunity to enter a rental-free six-month lease of a personalised Proteo Switch. The rental period will begin as mutually agreed by the successful trainer and Theault.

The winning trainer will be required to sign a lease agreement with Theault containing the rental-free terms and conditions that apply. There will be no charge for the first 30,000km, after which a charge of $50 per kilometre will apply. Under this agreement, the prize can be redeemed by the winning trainer once, and the Proteo Switch is non-transferrable. The prize is offered at the absolute discretion of Inglis and Theault and their decision is final and binding.

What happens in the event of a tiebreak?

In the event of a tie, the trainer, who has not received the prize previously, and has the most winners during the eligible races of the Inglis Race Series will receive the Theault Van for 6 months

If, it is still not possible to determine a clear winner, the trainer who has won the most prizemoney from the current Inglis Race Series will be declared the winner for the Theault Trainers Challenge.

How do I redeem my prize?

Inglis and Theault will contact the winning trainer by email to provide details for delivery or collection.
